Speaker Testimonials:

Marcus is one of the leading "use of force" experts in the country. His lecture is an absolutely brilliant presentation on some very important material! I have attended many "use of force" presentations around the country and I would rank his class in the top five mandatory classes that all personnel should take. Marcus is a wealth of knowledge and his own personal experiences makes the lecture riveting.
David Demurjian, Trial Attorney / Certified Use of Force Instructor

Marcus is one of the most requested and knowledgeable law enforcement trainers in the country. He wrote one of the original Below 100 (www.Below100.com) articles and has done as much to advance officer safety as any individual in the country. Highly Recommended!
