Grant Writing Class

Course Information

If you are ready to learn how to find and write grants you've come to the right place. Beginning and experienced grant writers from city, county, and state agencies as well as nonprofits, K-12, colleges, and universities are encouraged to attend. This is a two day workshop being offered March 2-3, 2015, from 9am to 4pm both days. The workshop will be held at the Columbus Division of Police Regional training Center.

Course Purpose / Objectives

The grant writing class covers how to write grant proposals start to finish and how to locate and track relevant grant opportunities. Federal, state, local and non-governmental, private sector grants are covered. You'll learn everything you need to know to get started writing grants. Beginning and experienced grant writers from city, county and state agencies as well as nonprofits, K-12, colleges and universities are encouraged to attend.

Instructor

Grant Writing USA delivers training programs across America that dramatically enhances performance in the areas of grant writing, grants management and grant maker research. Our instructors each have more than twenty years experience.

We are solely focused on delivering a learning experience that absolutely sizzles - the kind of experience that gets people excited about the limitless possibilities of their work and imparts significant information in a way that's firmly retained, easily recalled and immediately applicable. We accomplish this in a setting that's 100% professional and as inspiring as it is educational.

We have coached, trained, and consulted for nearly 15,000 top-rank organizations and more than 25,000 individual achievers from every imaginable domain: leaders of government, philanthropists, academics, outstanding nonprofit managers, top performing staffers, everyday heroes. And because we learn as we teach, we have synthesized these champions' highest knowledge into one high-impact, fluff-free, fast-paced and thoroughly enjoyable learning experience.

Our woven message of excellence is our trademark and is why Grant Writing USA is still the fastest growing, most highly sought after grant writing and grant management training in America.
